

Promoting Diversity and Inclusion in Suicide Prevention

May 17-18, 2018

Regis University- Lowell Campus; 3333 Regis Blvd., Denver CO 80221

Register now for the 2018 Bridging the Divide: Suicide Awareness and Prevention Summit on May 17-18, 2018 at the Regis University Lowell Campus in Denver, where we will explore the theme Promoting Diversity and Inclusion in Suicide Prevention. This statewide conference, hosted by the Suicide Prevention Coalition of Colorado (SPCC), will showcase how suicide impacts a variety of communities and populations throughout Colorado and the United States.

Keynote Speakers

Yeates Conwell, M.D.	Shelby Rowe, MBA	Russell Toomey, Ph.D	Melaney Sreenan Ph.D
“Prevention of Suicide in Later Life: Clinical & Public Health Perspectives”	“Reconnecting With Your Unconquerable Spirit”	“Sexual and Gender Minority Disparities in Suicide Behavior: Risk and Resilience”	“Suicide: From Shock & Shame to Healing & Wholeness”

UNIVERSITY of DENVER

GRADUATE SCHOOL OF PROFESSIONAL PSYCHOLOGY

This program is approved for 4.0 CE. The University of Denver, Graduate School of Psychology (GSPP) is approved by the American Psychological Association to sponsor continuing education for psychologists. GSPP maintains responsibility for this program and its content.

Please check our web site at www.suicidpreventioncolorado.org for more detailed information including: current preconference workshop offerings, complete agenda listings, registration and scholarship information. Note: SPCC members receive a $15 discount from the non-member rate. Questions/concerns, please contact us at btd@suicidpreventioncolorado.org. We hope to see you at Regis- Lowell Campus on May 17-18!